FOREWORD

The American Correctional Association proudly presents the 43rd edition of the Directory of Juvenile and Adult Correctional Departments, Institutions, Agencies and Paroling Authorities. This informational directory is one in a series of three published by the ACA. Also available is the National Jail and Adult Detention Directory, currently being updated which provides vital information on the nation's jails and detention centers, and the Probation and Parole Directory, which contains information on federal, state and county adult and juvenile probation, parole and aftercare services in the United States and Canada. Together, these three directories provide a pertinent and comprehensive guide to the entire correctional system.

Association members, as well as public and private organizations and manufacturers, will find this 1983 directory an essential ready-reference document providing data on approximately 1,600 institutions and more than 3,500 personnel involved in correctional service in the United States and Canada.

The statistical summaries have proven to be an extremely valuable source for research. In some instances, the editor had to interpret or combine the information provided. For detailed, specific information beyond that provided in the summaries, please contact the individual state.

Because of the volatility of corrections and the political influences that have major effects on personnel, it is impossible for the directory to be completely accurate by the time it is published. Every effort is made by the ACA staff to keep the directory current between editions. Please do not hesitate to call the Association's headquarters if you need information. We also welcome user comments on improving any aspect of this directory.

To the participating adult and juvenile correctional officials and staff who annually provide the essential information necessary for timely publication, the Association extends special thanks. It is only through a generous spirit of cooperation and professional concern that this important directory is possible.

Anthony P. Travisono
Executive Director

College Park, Maryland

Note

Information in this directory was requested as of July 1, 1982. Correctional information is constantly changing; when important, new information is known to us prior to publication date, every effort is made for its inclusion.

MEETINGS OF THE AMERICAN CORRECTIONAL ASSOCIATION

Each year the ACA sponsors two major meetings—the Congress of Correction (in August) and the Midwinter Conference (in January).

In a highly competitive but democratic process, corrections' top professionals and experts are selected to be Congress speakers. The tone is positive and proactive as these top-notch speakers address correctional problems, developments and issues.

The topics discussed at each Congress and Midwinter Conference appeal to all sectors of the Association's membership, as well as the non-ACA members in the correctional field and interested citizens who attend.

Both meetings also offer intensive workshops and seminars that encourage professional growth through dialogue and technical training. In addition, opportunities are provided to view a variety of commercial exhibits of state-of-the-art correctional products and services.

Participation in these meetings is a significant way to support the ACA—the national organization for corrections professionals—and to receive support from colleagues.

Future Congress dates are as follows:

1983 — Chicago, Illinois	August 7-11
1984 — San Antonio, Texas	August 19-23

The dates for upcoming Midwinter Conference are:

1983 — Nashville, Tennessee	January 10-13
1984 — Denver, Colorado	January 8-12

For further information, please contact Marge L. Restivo, Assistant Director, Conventions, Advertising and Publications, (301) 699-7600.

DIRECTORY USER'S GUIDE

This Directory includes an organizational description of adult and juvenile correctional systems for every state, territory, the federal government and Canada.

Within the section for each state, four main categories of adult and juvenile services—Institutions, Parole Boards, Parole Services and Probation Services—include information that explains the organization of specific services. This date should assist the user in understanding the total organizational and administrative structure of correctional services in any given jurisdiction.

In cases where updated information was not available, data from last year's edition have been repeated. Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy and completeness; however, the Association cannot assume responsibility for errors or omissions.

The statistical summaries in the Directory include vital information often sought by professionals, as well as the public. Cost of care and number of employees for individual facilities have been updated. Cost of care figures differ according to fiscal data provided by individual state correctional systems, i.e., figures were calculated on a per inmate/per day, per inmate/per year, or systemwide basis for FY1982.

Changes or new information to be included in future editions of the Directory should be forwarded to the American Correctional Association, 4321 Hartwick Road, Suite L-208, College Park, Maryland 20740. Comments or suggestions for improvement are welcome.

Who will manage your capital expenditure program?

It's a familiar story. Over budget and behind schedule. Too little information and too much to do. It doesn't have to be that way. Now, there is a way to control costs and time, and still get the facilities you want. It's called Capital Expenditure Management (CEM).

CEM works. It works because it gives you valuable cost and technical input prior to and during design — without having to give up the competitive bid. It helps you plan, coordinate and control your building program from the very beginning... and gives you the expanded capabilities you need to complement your in-house expertise — just for the duration of your project.

Kitchell has managed or constructed projects worth over one billion dollars — all completed on time and within budget. Sound too good to be true? Talk to our clients. They can tell you what a good investment our services turned out to be.

Note: The term "recidivism" in relation to corrections has not obtained a common definition, making it extremely difficult to gather information which can be used for comparison purposes. We have attempted to collect data using the definition in the above survey question. Modifications presented by the questioned departments are included.

This information should not be considered authoritative and is provided as a step to narrow the definition in order to make useful comparisons in the future.

This phone is screaming for help.

The Executone® Maximum Security Telephone System™: Added Safety for the Correctional Officer.

In a correctional institution, the telephone is far more than just a communication device. It's a tool to safeguard lives.

That's why Executone Inc., in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, has designed the Maximum Security Telephone System: the most advanced computerized telecommunications network for correctional institutions ever conceived.

The Maximum Security Telephone System anticipates virtually every possible security situation. Take, for instance, the System's special "No Dial" feature that automatically generates an alarm if a phone is left off the hook longer than 14 seconds. Or the "Watch-Call Station" feature that simplifies and safeguards inmate head counts. To call in, officers simply dial a 3-digit code that instantly connects them to the "Watch-Call Station" located in the control center. Up to 32 officers can call in—and confer—simultaneously.

The System also provides special phones in key security areas like control centers, guard towers, sally ports and emergency personnel areas. Should an emergency situation arise, an officer need only dial a 3-digit code to set off all security conference phones simultaneously.

For all its technological sophistication, the System is remarkably easy to use, install and maintain. And its price is competitive with systems that are currently used in correctional facilities but do not offer these advanced security features.

So play it safe. Call the Executone experts and learn more about what this special System can do for your facility.

PRISONERS UNDER DEATH SENTENCE, BY JURISDICTION, ON JULY 1, 1982

Note: For the period covered, there were no statutory provisions for capital punishment in Alaska, District of Columbia, Hawaii, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Notes:

1. State legislature rejected an attempt to repeal the death penalty during the 1982 session. Bill passed which exempts application of the death penalty to those under age of 18 at the time of commission of the crime.
2. Lethal injection legislation pending.
3. Currently all cases are on mandatory appeal to the New Mexico Supreme Court; none have yet been heard.
4. Total includes one male classified as "Other."
5. Approximately 20 additional inmates in state and county prisons who have received sentence verdicts of death, but who have not yet been formally sentenced by a judge.
6. Remanded to Commissioner.
7. Manner of execution is in accordance with laws of State in which execution is done. The sole offense for which capital punishment is available is Aircraft Piracy, 49 U.S.C. 1472 (i). H.R. 13360 would amend Federal Rules of Criminal (and Appellate) Procedures to describe circumstances under which the death penalty would be imposed.

REINFORCED
SERVING WARE

Tough, dependable, economical . . . that's the entire Halsey line of reinforced melamine serving ware. Halsey combines rugged, high-impact materials with expert molding techniques for quality serving ware that keeps your hot foods hot and your cold foods cold. Chopped cotton cloth strengthens the basic materials for extra impact resistance and excellent thermal insulating properties.

Food service accessories take a lot of punishment. Our high-gloss surface resists stains . . . even cigarette burns! The result? Serving ware that stays both sanitary and attractive. These products are designed for compact, quiet stacking for room air drying and less disturbing clatter. Your choice of green or tan color provides variety. All Halsey products meet Federal specifications and are stocked for all Federal agencies by the General Services Administration. Items may also be ordered directly from:

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

In Alabama adult institutions come under the State Department of Corrections; juvenile institutions come under the Department of Youth Services.

The State Board of Pardons and Paroles paroles adults and provides a statewide system for adult probation and parole services.

Release dates for juveniles are determined by the Juvenile Court having original jurisdiction over them. The Court also provides probation and parole services for them along with those provided by the State (probation only). There is no parole board for juveniles.

ADULT INSTITUTIONS

Persons of the age 16 or over who are convicted of a felony are committed to the State Board of Corrections for a minimum sentence of one year and one day. Youthful offenders (under the Youthful Offender Act) are also committed to the State Board.

ECSI

Architects & Engineers for Trenton State Prison selected ECSI to supply the security management control system for the facility.

Artist's rendering of the Rehabilitation of Trenton State Prison.
Architects: Gruzen & Partners/
The Grad Partnership.
Engineers: Kallen & Lemelson.

Environmental Conservation Systems Inc. designs and manufactures cost-effective, people-oriented systems that are easy to operate and easy to maintain. ECSI security systems are designed for the modern correctional facility affording a "normal" yet secure environment for both resident and staff.

ECSI was selected by the architects and engineers of the Trenton State Prison project to provide the total security management control system for the facility. ECSI supplied both the analytical programming and the electronically monitored control system required by the New Jersey Department of Corrections.

The Total Building Control System incorporates consoles, door access, patrol tour, duress alarms, intercom, public address and monitoring, as well as CCTV surveillance and data storage.

The ECSI system interfaces with smoke, fume and fire detection, elevator and H.V.A.C. subsystems, thus insuring the facility's total building monitoring and control.

ECSI can assist you in selecting a system to meet your specific operational requirements. Call or write for complete information.

The Board of Parole is an autonomous agency (assisted administratively by the Department of Correction) which consists of 11 members, including the Chairman, appointed by the Governor with the consent of either the House of Representatives or the Senate. Just an ordinary tube of toothpaste ...right?

wrong!

Things aren't always what they appear to be. Fortunately, the Torrex II X-ray Security Screening System can easily spot these 22 caliber shells inside this tube of toothpaste — just as easily as they can be inserted through the opening beneath the cap. Or, if capsules of narcotics are placed inside the tube, they, also, can be spotted with ease.

The Torrex II can greatly assist in the vital task of correctional institution security by finding contraband being smuggled in through channels you might not expect. And with its high penetration plus high resolution capabilities, the Torrex II can do it with ease. More than one hundred of these units are currently being used in correctional institutions throughout the United States and Canada. Why not increase security while decreasing security costs in your institution — with a Torrex II. Shows you the "Bennies" in 77421's Birthday Cake.

There'll be no high times at 77421's birthday party tonight. That's because the Philips Dynafluor XI spotted the "bennies" in his birthday cake.

It'll also show "snow" in a shopping bag or "mary jane" in the mail. Fact is, any drug that can be injected, popped, smoked or snorted can be seen by this revolutionary, low-dose X-ray inspection system.

The Dynafluor XI is the only low-dose X-ray system with dual magnification and adjustable contrast for drug spotting capability. A handy joy stick allows you to scan the entire image, and a simple turn of the stick provides added magnification that'll make a nickel bag stand out like a 10 pound sack.

Dynafluor brings the best of both worlds to X-ray inspection. The Dynafluor XI images handguns, knives, files and other potential threats, and the choice of magnification and/or variable contrast allows you to spot concealed drugs. You get low dosage, ideal penetration and optimum contrast for nondestructive inspection of the broadest variety of items from mail to foodstuffs.

Let the Philips Dynafluor XI help you stop drugs from infiltrating your institution. Call or write for a demonstration or a copy of our informative brochure.

Del Norte Perimeter Systems show you what's happening and where, instantly.

The new Del Norte map annunciator system combined with the CIRCE or SP 2000 alarm processor gives you total perimeter control.

The system uses seismic geophone sensors — either fence-mounted or underground — and/or infrared beams to detect possible intruders or breakouts. The display and monitor system provides visual and printed records on all alarm information.

And the map displays come in both wall-mounted and remote mobile units for full versatility.

Call or write for details on Del Norte perimeter systems. Let us show you what's happening with the latest from Del Norte.

ADULT PAROLE BOARD/PAROLE SERVICES

The Massachusetts Parole Board is an independent agency within, but not subject to, the State Department of Corrections. The Chairman is the appointing authority and is responsible to the Secretary of Human Services. The Board also serves as the Advisory Board of Pardons for the Governor.

The Parole Board has jurisdiction over all commitments to state prison, reformatory and county houses of corrections serving a sentence of 60 days or more from either Superior or District Court.

Parole supervision is provided by a field staff under the direction of the Chief Parole Supervisor. While Board members are appointed by the Governor, other administrative and field staff are Civil Service employees. Parole officers are responsible to an Area Supervisor who reports to the Chief Parole Supervisor.

the exterior of a Criminal Justice Facility is important, too.

The blending of this downtown project with its business district surroundings is a key reason for the architectural honors it won. Attention to total project requirements, inside and outside, has helped make criminal justice facilities design a Sverdrup specialty. The company provides architectural, engineering and planning services to municipal, county, state and federal agencies. Current projects include a 500-bed medium security prison and a 350-bed metropolitan justice center.

Respect for client needs, agency programs, philosophies and budgets result in designs that are functional, attractive and cost-effective. Sverdrup services include new facility programming and design, site selection and renovation of existing facilities.

Of the 81 facilities in North Carolina, 68 are managed through 6 Area Offices, centrally located within 6 geographic areas of the State.

Three geographic areas are managed by the Western Area Manager and 3 are managed by the Eastern Area Manager. All adult male misdemeanants and felons sentenced to 5 years or less are received at a unit designated as the Reception/Diagnostic Center. At this center the inmate is evaluated and classified for assignment to a designated unit within the area for the completion of an appropriate correctional program.

Minimum custody youthful offenders between the ages of 18-21 are separated from the adult population in 10 specially designated youthful offender facilities.

The Odom/Caledonia Complex encompasses 2 institutions and a field unit.

ADULT INSTITUTIONS

A person convicted of a felony under Ohio law may be sentenced to a penal institution. Ohio statutes divide male penal institutions into two categories—reformatories and penitentiaries. Male persons, except those convicted of first or second degree murder, between the ages of twenty-one and thirty years of age may be sentenced to a reformatory, if such persons have not been known previously to have served a sentence in a federal, state or other prison or correctional institution, and are persons whom the sentencing court deems amenable to reformatory methods. Males between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years, other than those convicted of first or second degree murder, must be sentenced to reformatories unless such males have previously served a sentence in a federal or state prison or correctional institution for conviction of a felony. All other males sentenced to a state penal institution are sent to a penitentiary.

Ohio operates only one facility for women; all women convicted of a felony and sentenced to a penal institution are sent to the Ohio Reformatory for Women.

JUVENILE PROBATION AND PAROLE

Probation of juveniles is administered by probation officers who are appointed by a Juvenile Court Judge. The Judge may transfer the duties of probation to County Probation Departments but at no time may a juvenile case be handled by an officer from the Adult Division. The Office of Subsidies, Community Services Division within the Department of Youth Services administers a program of state aid to juvenile courts.

In all but two counties, the Juvenile Court is within the Division of Domestic Relations of the Court of Common Pleas. Cuyahoga County has an independent juvenile court, and the Hamilton County juvenile court is a separate division of that county's Court of Common Pleas. All juvenile courts have exclusive original jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected, and "unruly" children under 18 and over physically handicapped children up to age 21.

Juvenile institutions come under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Public Welfare's Office of Children and Youth. Juvenile probation is a function of the counties and their probation officers. There are no institutional juvenile parole boards; the Juvenile Court has complete and original jurisdiction over juvenile offenders. The Juvenile Court Judges Commission provides advisory services to the courts and county probation departments regarding administration and program content for juveniles.

ADULT INSTITUTIONS

Those convicted in adult criminal court and receiving maximum sentences of from two to five years may, at the discretion of the court, be sent to a State Correctional Diagnostic and Classification Center for classification and transfer within the state system. Adult criminal convictions receiving five years or more must be sent to a State Correctional Diagnostic and Classification Center. Where Regional Correctional Facilities are available, counties within that region may send all individuals receiving sentences of six months to two years to the Regional Facility.

Parole eligibility occurs at the end of the minimum sentence which may not exceed one-half of the maximum sentence. For certain violent crimes, a mandatory five-year minimum sentence is required. All other cases are sentenced under 1982 sentencing guidelines which require the courts to justify any deviations.

Youthful offenders are adult criminal commitments, but because of age (15 to 21 years) are maintained at the State Correctional Institution at Camp Hill. Their sentences are statutorily established at indeterminate to six years unless the maximum for the offense is less than six years, in which case the sentence is indeterminate to the statutory maximum for that offense.

SOUTH CAROLINA

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

Adult corrections at the state level in South Carolina is handled by two agencies, the South Carolina Department of Corrections and the South Carolina Department of Parole and Community Corrections. All convicted adult offenders, age 17 and above, and sentenced to serve a specific term of incarceration greater than three months are admitted to the Department of Corrections. Adult offenders between the ages of 17 and 21 (extended to 25 with individual consent) can be sentenced to serve an indeterminate term of one to six years under the Youthful Offender Act. These individuals may also be admitted to the Department of Corrections and supervised by its Youthful Offender Branch.

The Department of Corrections is responsible to the State Board of Corrections which serves as an advisory board. This board has seven members, six of which are appointed by the Governor, who is the ex-officio member.

Department of Corrections' inmates serving a straight sentence are eligible for parole by the Department of Parole and Community Corrections, a separate agency. For individuals serving an indeterminate sentence under the Youthful Offender Act, the Department of Corrections' Youthful Offender Branch will be responsible for their parole decision and supervision.

The Department of Parole and Community Corrections handles adult offenders on probation or parole, excluding those who have served an indeterminate sentence under the Youthful Offender Act. The Department of Parole and Community Corrections, the State agency which provides adult probation and parole services, is responsible to the six-member Parole and Community Corrections Board. The six part-time members are appointed by the Governor.

The Department of Youth Services is charged with the responsibility of providing statewide community based and institutional services related to juvenile delinquency. The agency was created on October 1, 1981, through the merger of the former Department of Youth Services and the Department of Juvenile Placement and Aftercare.

The Department of Youth Services is governed by a seven-member board appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for five year terms. In addition, the State Superintendent of Education serves as a voting member and the Supervising Chaplain of the Department serves as a non-voting ex officio member..

A ten member Juvenile Parole Board, also appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, acts as the paroling authority to determine the release of children committed by the Family Court to the agency's correctional facilities. The Parole Board also conducts hearing to determine revocations of release for parole violations. Staff support for the Board is provided through the Parole Division of the Department under the guidance of the Commissioner.

ADULT INSTITUTIONS

Adult institutions housing offenders serving more than a three month sentence or an indeterminate sentence under the Youthful Offender Act fall within the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections. Responsibility for direct supervision of these institutions is divided among two directors and two regional administrators who report to the Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Institutions. Because of overcrowded conditions, some state inmates are housed in designated local facilities, as provided for by legislation. Local facilities to house State inmates are designated, in most cases, for a period of one year and may be renewed by mutual agreement of the Department of Corrections and local officials. The office of the Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Institutions, is responsible for coordinating the operations for placing State inmates in designated local facilities. At the end of FY 1982, there were 57 local facilities designated to house State inmates. The average number of Department of Corrections inmates held in these facilities during FY 1982 was 614.

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

The Department of Corrections operates the adult correctional institutions and administers adult probation and parole services. The Bureau of Juvenile Rehabilitation of the Department of Social and Health Services provides for juvenile institutions and parole services. Juvenile probation services are provided by each county at the local level.

*The Board of Prison Terms and Paroles is an independent agency reporting only to the Governor. The Board reviews only the cases of adult felons. There is no juvenile parole board. The release date for juveniles is determined by the Bureau of Juvenile Rehabilitation.

ADULT INSTITUTIONS

*Anyone convicted of a felony by a superior court judge is committed to an institution under the Department of Corrections. This may include a juvenile remanded by a juvenile court to be handled as an adult. In a case such as this, if the juvenile is under 16, he may not be housed with adult felons and is therefore transferred to a juvenile institution by agreement of the Secretary of the Department of Corrections.

JUVENILE INSTITUTIONS AND PAROLE SERVICES

The Division of Juvenile Rehabilitation works with youth between the ages of eight and 18 who are committed to it by the county juvenile courts. Since July 1, 1977, juvenile courts can only commit delinquent youth to the Division; before July 1977, the courts were also committing dependent incorrigibles.

Beginning July 1, 1978, release dates were established utilizing a minimum and maximum. These ranges have to be approved by the legislature.

Juvenile Justice School
Remedial education program in cooperation with the Department of Education. Provocational training in a community living environment for Juvenile Hall clients and other youth who are on probation.

On January, 1978, Guam implemented the Deinstitutionalization of Status Offenders Program which reduced the average population from the high 20's to 10-12 average. The average length of stay for non-status offenders is 14 days. The population fluctuates and varies from week to week. The return rate averages 6 contacts. One client may have been in and out of the detention 16 times, each time for a new offense or technical violation. New offenders may be deferred and not detained. Presently, most detentions are for those who have already been in detention at least two (2) times. Many clients are released on "bail" to continue with the adjudication process while under court condition. Detention is now a last resort, with emphasis on diversion.

FEDERAL INSTITUTIONS

The Federal Bureau of Prisons, established on May 14, 1930 by an Act of Congress, is assigned the responsibility for "the safe-keeping, care, protection, instruction, and discipline of all persons charged or convicted of offenses against the United States."

To carry out its responsibilities, the Bureau has a correctional network of 50 correctional institutions ranging from penitentiaries to halfway houses. The administration of these facilities is divided into five regions with regional directors headquartered in Atlanta, Dallas, Kansas City, Philadelphia, and San Francisco. Functions such as case management, health and drug abuse programs, education, vocational training and correctional services are delegated to these regions and the individual institutions with coordination and oversight carried out in the Central Office.

NATIONAL PAROLE BOARD

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

The National Parole Board grants or denies conditional releases to those inmates under sentence of imprisonment in federal penitentiaries or provincial jails in those provinces where there is no provincial Parole Board. It is an independent body reporting to Parliament through the Ministry of the Solicitor General.

The Board consists of 26 members appointed by the Governor-in-Council for a period of up to ten years. All members may be reappointed. The head office is in Ottawa, though divisions of two or more members may be established. There are five such divisions, one in each major geographical region of the country, namely, the Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario, the Prairies and the North West Territories, and the British Columbia and Yukon regions. Regional Offices are managed by one Regional Executive Officer in each region with support staff.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AFFAIRS

By virtue of the passage in 1971 of the blueprint law "An Act respecting health services and social services", the province of Quebec was divided into nine (9) socio-sanitary regions within which were grouped all the establishments offering services to children with behavioral problems. As is stipulated in the Act, such establishments are called rehabilitation centers; these centers "admit persons suffering from a. . .psychological or social handicap who require intensive rehabilitation or orientation for a limited period of time."

The admittance of children to these reception centers, the respect for their rights, the type of program their state requires, the conditions for providing care in a top security environment are all regulated by the Youth Protection Act which was sanctioned in December, 1977.

AMERICAN CORRECTIONAL ASSOCIATION GRANTS AND CONTRACTS

CORRECTIONAL STANDARDS PROGRAM

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager
4321 Hartwick Road, Suite L-208
College Park, Maryland 20740
(301) 699-7600, ext. 38

During the past few years all adult and juvenile correctional standards have been revised and second editions have been published. A 12-month grant from the National Institute of Corrections will enable the American Correctional Association to maintain records, interpret standards and recommend changes in the second editions. The Standards Program will develop and publish the first of a series of annual supplements that will be distributed to the field. These supplements will be used both in the accreditation process and by ACA consultants providing technical assistance to the field. Some of the types of revisions that will be made include the following:

- Recommendations to change the language of individual standards to make them more understandable.
- Omissions may be found in the sets of standards which lead to the requirement for additional standards in subsequent editions.
- The weights assigned to the standards may need to be re-evaluated.

During the grant period the following activities will be undertaken:

- Assembling information regarding the current standards and guidelines publications, and collecting general data for further revisions.
- Clearinghouse activities. The ACA will continue to respond to inquiries regarding standards implementation.
- Review of existing and proposed publications for compliance with standards. The ACA issues articles, manuals and other publications. These documents will require review and possible revision to ensure conformity with standards' requirements.

The grant will be completed October 31, 1983.

PLANNING AND DESIGN CRITERIA FOR ADULT FACILITIES AND PROGRAMS MANUAL

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager
4321 Hartwick Road, Suite L-208
College Park, Maryland 20740
(301) 699-7600, ext. 38

In order to better meet the needs of the field, the National Institute of Corrections (NIC) has awarded a grant to the ACA to revise the manual, which will be formally adopted by NIC. Revising the manual will allow the document to be matched with the second editions of correctional standards manuals developed by the ACA. The manual will be modified and redrafted using the same procedures used in developing both standards and model policies and procedures. A resource committee which will include the ACA Committee on Correctional Architecture and other representatives of architectural interests will assist in the process.

Upon completion, copies will be printed and distributed to such agencies/organizations as well as all state departments of corrections, selected institutions, appropriate associations and ACA affiliate organizations. The ACA will cover printing costs for additional copies and will market the publication through the ACA Publications Division, which will ensure the widest possible distribution to the field. The manual will be published by May 1983.

SECURITY MANUAL FOR THE TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager

During 1981 the American Correctional Association provided technical assistance to the Tennessee Department of Corrections (TDOC) for the development of an agency-wide policy and procedure manual. Pursuing our goal to translate these policy directives into concrete reality, ACA and TDOC developed a security manual specifically directed toward the Tennessee State Prison. This manual is being developed to standardize the Department's security measures and is expected to serve as a resource document for later development of manuals by other prisons. This project is scheduled for completion by January 31, 1983.

DEVELOPMENT AND PUBLICATION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF PRISONS
PHASE II

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager

During the first half of 1982 the Association worked with the Nevada Department of Prisons to develop a set of agency-wide policy and procedures for selected problem areas. This second phase of the project is being carried on in a similar manner to complete secondary portions of Nevada's policy program. This project is scheduled for completion March 14, 1983.

NEW MEXICO POLICY AND PROCEDURE DEVELOPMENT

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager

This project, funded by the National Institute of Corrections, is designed to develop a basic format and policies and procedures for selected areas within the administrative control of the New Mexico prison system. The principle consultant for this project is Jim Henderson, who is working closely with the director of corrections and other key employees throughout the Department. The project is scheduled for completion January 15, 1983.

ALASKA POLICY AND PROCEDURE DEVELOPMENT

Hardy Rauch, Project Manager

This project is a contractual arrangement between ACA and the Alaska Division of Corrections. This project is a joint effort using both the executive staff and employees of the Alaska Division of Corrections and specialized ACA consultants. This project is scheduled for completion June 30, 1983.

DEVELOPMENT OF A CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM FOR ALASKAN FACILITIES, PRE-TRIAL DETAINEES AND COMMUNITY CENTERS

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager

This contractual arrangement between the ACA and Alaska will enable the ACA to develop a system of classifying various levels of prisoners, pre-trial detainees and community program participants. The project will further identify security levels for various correctional programs and facilities and enable the state administrators to implement a system of relating inmate classification needs to the security levels of facilities. The principle consultant for this contract is Charlotte Nesbitt, who is working closely with Alaskan officials to accomplish the goals outlined above. This project is scheduled for completion June 30, 1983.

DEVELOPMENT OF A POPULATION MANAGEMENT PLAN FOR ALASKA

Hardy Rauch, Program Manager

This contractual arrangement with Alaska is designed to provide the state with a realistic approach to its rapidly rising population and to make reasonable plans for the location of prisoners before the state's new facilities are constructed. This project is scheduled for completion by June 30, 1983.

RECENTLY COMPLETED PROJECTS

Establishment of a System of Unit Management. The Association and the executive staff of the Kirkland, South Carolina, correctional facility jointly implemented a system of unit management in that facility designed to enable insitutional officials to more effectively manage, control and direct the institution's operations. The unit management system was designed to enable institutional employees to provide guidance, direction and counseling to the prisoner population in a more effective manner. The principle consultant for this project was Roy Gerard, who was prominent in the development of unit management theory for several institutions throughout the United States.

Publication of a Document Related to Protective Custody in Adult Correctional Facilities. Questions relating to the protective custody inmate and the operations of a unit to house these prisoners remain a relatively unexplored province. The lack of adequate textual materials accentuates the problems of the correctional administrator who desires to deal humanely and rationally with inmates who may require protective custody.

This project explored the current uses of protective custody in six adult institutions. Surveys of staff and inmates were conducted to examine who is being confined in protective custody units, for what reasons, and under what conditions.

The results have been published in a book that includes photographs, charts and graphs, and supporting editorial comment. Major sections of the publication include:

- Who, where, when and why are inmates placed in protective custody
- The current status of protective custody units
- The viewpoint of protective custody from the perspective of the inmate and the correctional officer
- The effect of protective custody upon the inmate
- The ACA standards relating to the protective custody unit
- Use of confidential information and sources
- The effective protective custody unit

While the scope of the project cannot explore the entire depth of the subject completely, the intention is to establish certain basic facts relative to the subject that will provide administrators with new information, and more importantly, stimulate others to identify more specific areas that may be explored later to improve managerial effectiveness of the protective custody unit.

A Plan to Develop National Correctional Policy. This NIC short-term grant enabled the Association to draw together ideas and methods by which a process for the development of national correctional policy could become operational. Significant correctional issues already identified by other groups and by research efforts were consolidated. The ACA delegates were surveyed to rank identified significant correctional issues and to provide ideas as to the best process for developing national policy. A plan for an ongoing process of issue identification and a plan of action to develop statements of national correctional policy addressing these identified issues were outlined.

The overall development process produced by this grant was unanimously ratified by the ACA Delegate Assembly at Toronto. The project manager of this grant was Charlotte A. Nesbitt.

TRAINING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The American Correctional Association's Division of Training and Technical Assistance offers training to meet the needs of our membership through nationally advertised and on-site training programs. We are pleased to offer a correspondence course for correctional officers this year.

Training for Staff Trainers

A survey recently conducted by the Technical and Skills Training Division of a national training organization revealed that 60 percent of their technical training members had been in their positions less than two years and 70 percent have never had any specific training in instructional technology. The American Correctional Association has been working with the National Institute of Corrections over the past two years to develop a comprehensive "Train the Trainers" program for correctional staff trainers. We have trained over 400 trainers in the past two years. The purpose of this program is to assist the participants in developing the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to be a professional correctional staff trainer.

Workshop Design

The learning experiences in this program incorporate a philosophy of "learning-by-doing" in a highly concentrated format. In preparation for a workshop, participants are often asked to devote time to the selection of materials reflecting the needs of their own work settings. In simulated individual and team environments, they then apply the principles being learned to these materials to design and complete products translatable to each person's work situation.

A wide variety of programs will be offered in 1983-84 including:

- Crisis Intervention and Hostage Negotiations
- Let ACA Train Your Trainers
- Managing Stress in Corrections
- Stress-Reduction Techniques for Inmates
- Proposal Writing for Corrections
- Fire Emergency Planning
- How to Develop Policies and Procedures
- Defensive Tactics for the Correctional Environment
- Legal Issues Training
- Emergency Evacuation Procedures
- Managing Community Corrections Facilities
- Dealing with the Mentally Ill Offender

On-Site Workshops

The Association also conducts on-site training programs in the content areas listed, as well as Report Writing, Management and Supervisory Training, and Communication Skills. These programs are designed to be delivered on-site for state and local departments of correction at a greatly reduced rate. The sponsor of an on-site training workshop provides a training site and a minimum number of participants. By using the on-site training model, departments of correction save travel and per diem costs for participants and gain the ability to train a large number of people.

Correspondence Course

The Association also offers a Correctional Officer Correspondence Course. This four-volume, self-instructional course provides basic instruction, in accordance with ACA standards, for every correctional officer.

- Volume I-Basic Concepts In Corrections
- Volume II-Supervising Inmates
- Volume III-Security Procedures
- Volume IV-Special Inmates

After completing each volume, the officer will be given a comprehensive examination. Each candidate who scores 80% or better on each test will be awarded a certificate of successful completion of 40 hours of in-service training.

Furthur information can be obtained by writing or calling Anita Flynn, Staff Assistant, or William J. Taylor, Manager, Training and Technical Assistance, American Correctional Association, 4321 Hartwick Road, College Park, MD 20740. Phone (301) 699-7650.

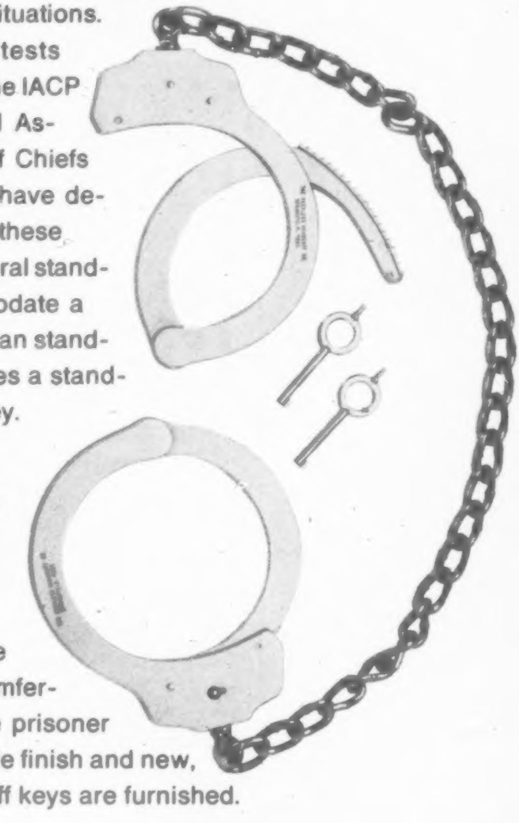
PEERLESS RESTRAINING DEVICES

New Hinged Handcuffs These patented handcuffs are the ultimate in restraint and provide maximum safety to the restraining officer. New hinge design prevents prisoners from using muscles and tendons to tamper with locking mechanism. When handcuffed properly, prisoners are unable to escape, even with key in hand. Hinged Handcuffs, permit cuffing in a cross arm position, preventing "stepping" through to bring hands from back to front. Particularly effective in transporting prisoners and in high security risk situations. Independent tests approved by the IACP (International Association of Chiefs of Police) have determined that these handcuffs exceed Federal standards. Can accommodate a 25% larger wrist than standard cuffs and uses a standard handcuff key.



Leg Irons

Peerless leg irons are adjustable shackles built for years of service. They are made to the same rigid specifications as U.S. government approved Peerless handcuffs. They have 19 positive locking positions to a 10" circumference and a strong 15" chain to prevent the prisoner from running. All steel construction with nickle finish and new, improved double lock. Two standard handcuff keys are furnished.

Just how hot is the GTE FPS-2?

So hot that we think no other fence mounted protection system sells out faster.

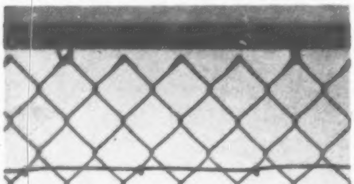
Even though they've had 8 years to try.

So hot that a recent national survey of security users ranked FPS-2 as the number one fence mounted product.

So hot that NATO chose it for high-risk installations after a 3-year head-to-head competitive comparison.

So hot that dozens of federal and state correctional facilities keep their toughest customers behind it. On fences up to 14 feet high.

FPS-2 FENCE PROTECTION SYSTEM



Consider the Source

So hot that thousands have found a place in military, government, and industrial installations ranging from sub-zero Alaskan winters to sizzling Southeast Asian summers.

That's hot! But that's not the whole story.

The FPS-2 has a complement of features that minimize installation cost, repair time and cost, instruction time for expert use. Even a listen-in feature that can cut false alarms to the bone.

For more information, write or call: GTE Security Systems, P.O. Box 1448, Mountain View, CA 94042, 415/966-2210, 3125 while it's hot.
